Sir,

I have the honor to state that the marginally noted articles of the Sri Chamunde-svari Temple on the Hill having been found to require urgent repairs, I arranged for the needful to the same being done at the Palace Treasury. This has cost s.26-0-4 as per bill herewith submitted. I beg accordingly to request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of the Government to the bill, the cost being met out of the savings of s.847-10-3 at the credit of the Institution up to the end of December 07.

One Pannanga embroidered with lace.
Four velvet Pillows.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Officer in charge of the Palace Establishments.
